

MARIO FONTANA was born in Cariati (Italia) on the 15th of November, 1979. He graduated in July 1999 in Cariati Marina (CS). He's always been interested in arts, but his passion actually developed when at 15 years old he started painting. Since then, he experimented on his own with different techniques such as painting, sculpture and drawing. Between 2001 and 2002 he worked in the field of sculpture in Cariati Marina, improving till he was able to show his works in public and private collection. His career became a big deal after he moved near Milan, in 2004, where he had more chances to be noticed. Since then he participated in exhibitions both in Italy and abroad and was featured in the Illustrious Annual Report "Mondadori per l'Arte" of 2017.
